CIATION FOR IMPROVING THE COMPAINS
OF THE POOR.
At a meeting of the Board of Neutgers held at the needs in appeal to the contains of Brookings for ad-litional and.

The undersigned are confident that it will only be recessary to make the wants of the Association known to lisers a noble response from its generous patrons a response which will enable the Association the delays of the Association on a few of the most sware months of the year, during which the rails for assistance are the most ungest. There were distributed in such clothing, provisions and other necessaries : nd other necessaries: In Nevember, 1905, $25.4 41 to 482 person. In December, 1906, $1.07 100 to 1.075 person. In January, 1806, $6.274 16, to 9.35 person. In February, 1806, $5.831.55 to 8.100 person.

In Nevember, 1866, 8607,59, to for persons.

The state of the s

The Sum is read expectable to compare the chirality in the set for the results from the law there will repetable the Americalon to compare the chirality in the set for the results are compare the chirality in the set for the results are compare the chirality in the set for the results are compared to the set of the set for the results are contained with these of the results are contained as the set of the set for the results are contained as the set of the s

The second see the same in a sun found from the second to seath mind by the order to the second seco

AND WITHOUT EXCEPTION, THE Cure was cobligged the hould allor as well as men, and they may be are larked by any between the significant of O'Coxona's country of the boundary of O'Coxona's country of O'Coxon

THE NEW YORK SUN.

THE STATE OF THE STATE Aborigines Protection Society, as a lastresource, appealed to the Home Secretary, who replied that the matter had been inquired into, and that there appeared to be good reason for supposing that the public were deceived as to these supposed savages, and that the Aborigines Protection Society, if it should make further researches, would probably find that there was not in reality any such re-straint put upon these so-called wild men as it apprehended to be the long the same than the control of the second of the seco quired into, and that there appeared to be good reason for supposing that the public were decrived as to these supposed savages, and that the Aborigines Protection Society, if it should make further reascarches, would probably find that there was not in reality any such restraint put upon these so-called "wild men" as it apprehended to be the case.

Mountmental Legal Principles in Mercantific Law.

The following general rules are worthy of preservation:

1.—That which is originally void, does not by lapse of the time become valid.

2.—A personal right of action dies with the person

3.—The law compels no one to do impossibilities.

4.—No one shall be twice vexed for one and the same cause.

5.—The greater contains the less.

6.—The law favors things which are in the custody of the law.

7.—The imband and wife are one person.

8.—Every set shall be taken most strongly against the maker.

9.—When two titles occur the elder should be preferred.

10.—A presenced over rules the law.

11.—When two titles occur the elder should be preferred.

12.—A presenced over rules the law.

13.—When two titles occur the elder should be preferred.

14.—When two titles occur the elder should be preferred.

15.—A presenced over rules the law.

16. The law bonders over rules the law.

17. The whon the privact the advantage out it.

18. A presenced over rules the law.

19. A presen

The state of the s

Fain A. & G. W. 1 71 600 dec 100 Lin A. Mill, 1st. 86 Ao dec 100 Mill, 2 81, P. 1. 86 M. 700 dec 100 Mill, 2 81, P. 1. 86 M. 700 dec 100 Mill, 2 81, P. 1. 86 M. 700 dec 10 Mill, 2 81 dec 10 Cen, National M. 104 700 dec 10 Cen, Natio